Legal Services – Questionnaire & Interview (PART 2)

Script for Beginning Part 2 of Interview

Thank you very much for speaking with me today. As you'll recall, you completed Part 1 with _____ on _____ [date].

During the first meeting, you discussed the people who you provide service to and accessibility for people who may have unique needs. Today we will focus on your service, as well as your experiences making and receiving referrals, networking and collaborating with other service providers.

ASK FIRST TWO QUESTIONS. THEN REFER PARTICIPANT TO THE FOUR CHARTS (IF APPLICABLE).

Now, I would like to direct your attention to the accompanying charts. These charts have been created to help capture exactly what legal information, advice, representation, and support you offer.

Please follow along with me and we will simply check the boxes that apply to your service specifically. [remind them again that this applies ONLY to their service, not the whole organization].

We will now go through the charts and I will check off only the boxes that apply to your service, directly.

Each chart has headings along the top and along the left side. The columns along the top address particular issues/areas for civil, criminal, family or administrative law. Along the side are types of services that you may or may not offer. I will read aloud the types of services, and ask you to indicate whether you provide these to service users. If you do provide a specific service, please also indicate which of the areas listed across the top apply to this service. In addition, please indicate whether you provide strictly procedural and/or substantive services for each column.

Lead them through the charts

Administrative:	participant - page 8	interviewer – page 10
Civil:	participant – page 10	interviewer – page 13
