Justice is about fairness, equality, morality and active societal participation.

99 Canadians in the Toronto Area

What is justice? People tend to think of justice as fairness, but it is more than a legal issue — it's a moral issue and it has to do with equality and inequality.

Not everyone has equal access to justice.

People often feel alienated by the system.

People should have a right to justice.

Justice is a fundamental issue.

Education, prevention and understanding are important aspects of justice.

The cost of not making justice accessible needs to be considered.

Access to justice means more than simply providing access to lawyers — it's about...

equality

happiness

security

education

food housing

The good life

INFOGRAPHIC SERIES

www.cfcj-fcjc.org

CFCJ

FCJC